Reflections from the readings

In today's Gospel, Jesus gave His disciples a promise that brings comfort to every Christian heart: "I will ask the father and he will give you another helper" That Helper is the Holy Spirit. Jesus knew His disciples would face fear, confusion, persecution, and moments of weakness. So He did not leave them alone. He promised the Spirit who would guide, strengthen, and remain with them forever.

In the Acts of the Apostles, we see this promise becoming reality. The believers received the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands, and their lives changed. Fear gave way to courage; sadness turned into joy. The Spirit united the Church and gave people strength to witness to Christ.

The same Helper is with us today. In moments when we feel lost, tired, or uncertain, the Holy Spirit speaks within us. He teaches us how to love, forgive, pray, and remain faithful. As St. Peter reminds us, we must always be ready to give reason for our hope. We can do this because we are not alone.

Jesus still keeps His promise: He sends us a Helper.

Sunday 10 May 2026

6th Sunday of Easter •

Liturgical Colour: White. Year: A(II).

Readings at Mass

First reading

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 •

'They laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.'

In those days: Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. And the crowds with one accord paid attention to what was being said by Philip, when they heard him and saw the signs that he did. For unclean spirits, crying out with a loud voice, came out of many who had them, and many who were paralysed or lame were healed. So there was much joy in that city.

Now when the Apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for he had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 66(65):1-3a. 4-5. 6-7a. 16, 20. R1

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;

O sing to the glory of his name.

O render him glorious praise.

Say to God, 'How wondrous your deeds!'

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

'Before you all the earth shall bow down,
shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God:

his wondrous deeds among the children of Adam.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

He turned the sea into dry land;

they passed through the river on foot.

Let our joy, then, be in him;

he rules for ever by his might.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

Come and hear, all who fear God;

I will tell what he did for my soul.

Blest be God, who did not reject my prayer,

nor withhold from me his merciful love.

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth.

Second reading

1 Peter 3:15-18

'Being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit.'

Beloved: In your hearts honour Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defence to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behaviour in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia.

If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, says the Lord,
and my Father will love him, and we will come to him.

Alleluia.

Gospel

John 14:15-21

'I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper.'

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.

'I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him.'

ANNOINTING OF THE SICK

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is a special sacrament of healing in the Catholic Church. It is given to those who are seriously ill, elderly, preparing for surgery, or weakened by age. Through the prayers of the Church and the anointing with holy oil by a priest, Christ brings comfort, strength, peace, courage, and forgiveness of sins. This sacrament reminds us that God never abandons His children in moments of pain and suffering.

People should not wait until the last moment before calling a priest. Family members are encouraged to inform the parish priest early when someone is sick. The sick person should prepare with faith, prayer, repentance, and trust in God's mercy. Whenever possible, the sacrament should be accompanied by Confession and Holy Communion. Catholics should also pray for and support the sick with love, presence, and encouragement, showing them the compassion of Christ.
